Coordinators must submit a complete list of speakers who have been accepted in the symposia, along with the following data:

1. List of participants in order of submission, with the title of the symposium, the presenter's name, institution, country and email. Take note that there can only be two presentations per participant. The Organizing Committee is not responsible for schedules overlap.
2. Abstract (200 words maximum).
3. Confirmation of payment of the registration fee for each presenter. If the paper is shared, each co-participant must pay the fee to ensure inclusion in the program and participation certificate.

Coordinators are asked to send all the required symposia information according to deadlines. Overdue submissions can not be guaranteed inclusion in the official program Congress.
